

During these critical times I am appalled that a governmental agency is even considering taking any kind of action against xm radio. I pay for it, I listen to it, and I also vote. Stick to important issues please.